

PROFILE

Creative and detail-oriented Freelance Graphic Designer with over a decade of experience (India) in branding, illustration, typography, and digital design. I specialize in crafting visual solutions that connect brands with their audiences, blending cultural storytelling with modern design practices to deliver impactful results. With a passion for digital painting and illustration, I often incorporate cartoon-inspired characters into my work, bringing a playful yet polished dimension that makes brands feel approachable and unique. Skilled in developing visual identities, packaging, and campaign materials, I thrive on creating designs that resonate across diverse audiences while staying true to a brand's ethos.
